On September 15th, 2022 I dropped my 3 children off at daycare. After work I returned to the daycare to find that my 17 month old daughter was not there. Trying to get answers and verify my daughter's wellbeing I drove to her father's apartment in Stoughton. When I realized she and he weren't there I drove to his mother's house in Evansville, WI. I knocked on the back door. It was taking an extremely long time for someone to answer the door but I did hear the owner (my daughter's grandmother) say to someone to "Keep the baby away from the back door") When she finally answered the door I asked where my daughter's father was, what was going on and to see my daughter. She stated my daughter's father was sleeping at his father's house. She said no I could not see my daughter and pushed me by the shoulders out of the doorway. It was at this moment I contemplated the need to see my daughter and if it was justified. As the woman had previously endangered my life by smoking weed and then driving, and had endangered the lives of my two older children by driving them without carseats I decided to verify my daughter was alright and stepped around her in an attempt to see my daughter. She was grabbing my arms and pulling at me. Instructed her other son to call 911. Chaos ensued. Long story short she would later try to say I assaulted her. That story changed and they tried charging me with Felony Elderly Abuse. All charges of assault and abuse were subsequently dropped. There have been no incidents since Sept. 15, 2022.
